

Save the Date! You are invited!
“Abuse Prevention and Intervention” free training!
Wed. & Thu., May 30-31, 2018
8:00 am to 4:30 pm

Where: Elwha Heritage Center
401 East 1st Street
Port Angeles, WA 98362

Why should you attend? This training will be beneficial to you personally and professionally because you will learn the entire spectrum of violence prevention and intervention (API) - Systemic Impact, Ripple Effect of a child, adult, and elder. Our presenters from the Outcomes and Operation, LLC, are equipped with information and are excited to share them with you here in the peninsula. Also, you will have a chance to meet the author of the book “Forgave: Releasing the pain”.

This training is open to Tribal community/members, staff, stakeholders, and anyone who is interested to attend. Certification of completion will be distributed to you at the end of the training.

*The Elwha River Casino will provide lunch on the first day. The Second day will be working lunch provided by LEFA**

Outcomes & Operations, LLC

 James Jordan, M.A., Chief Client Advocate, Program Leader

O&O, LLC. James trains organizations that work with clients with moderate to intense mental and physical health needs. He has over 25 years of service in the areas of community development, abuse, prevention, intervention, is a member, in good standing, of The American College of Healthcare Executives and has served as a development trainer for many local chapters of Court Appointed Advocates (CASA).

 Vergia Blackmon, Ph.D., Consulting Psychologist/Training Team Developer Coach,

O & O, LLC. Vergia fosters program management excellence for psychiatric and rehabilitative healthcare education & community treatment programs that serve children and older adults. She is a servant leader and has experience leading programs in Hawaii’s mental health community for over 20 years and now has taken on the role of creating new industry leaders in social services.

 Angela O. Kemp, Author, FORGAVE: Releasing the Pain, Subject Matter Expert (SMA) Team, O & O, LLC. a graduate of Faulkner University, the author of a simply down-to-earth and compelling personal account of abuse and the impact of abuse in a multi-faceted and complex interpersonal and family system. She featured partner in O & O, LLC’s API - Abuse Training Series and when she is not serving in the education of Abuse, Prevention and Intervention.

Contact: Beatriz Arakawa, Program Manager & Victim Advocate
Lower Elwha Klallam Tribe—Family Advocacy Program
3080 Lower Elwha Road
Port Angeles, WA 98363

360-565-7257 ext. 7453;
360-460-1745
Beatriz.arakawa@elwha.org

If at all possible, please RSVP by Tuesday, May 29, 2018. *****

Sponsored by LEKT-LEFA Prog. through
OCVA and OVW-CTAS grants. The opinion, findings, and conclusion or recommendations expressed in this flyer, presenters and/or LEFA Staff do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice OVW or WA OCVA.